

Lesson A-12

Key Word List

itinerant	(adj) traveling from place to place, especially to perform some duty or work; transient; (n) a person who travels from place to place.
itinerary	a route of travel; a plan or record of a journey.
advent	arrival or coming into being; (capitalized) the period beginning four weeks before Christmas circumvent	to avoid; to evade by cleverness.
convene	to assemble, especially for a meeting.
intervene	to occur between events or periods; to come between, thereby easing a situation.
telepathy	communication from one mind to another without speech, writing, or other sensory means.
deviate	to turn aside from a course, norm, pattern, or subject.
devious	winding; roundabout; underhanded; deceptive.
impervious	not penetrable by light rays, moisture, etc.; incapable of being influenced or affected.

Challenge Word List

adventitious	happening or carried on according to chance rather than design or inherent nature contravene	to violate the prohibition or order of (a law, treaty, or code of conduct) conventional	based on or in accordance with what is generally done or believed revenue	income, especially when of a company or organization and of a substantial nature venue	the place where something happens, especially an organized event such as a concert, conference, or sports event telegenic	having an appearance or manner that is appealing on television telemeter	an apparatus for recording the readings of an instrument and transmitting them by radio telethon	a very long television program, typically one broadcast to raise money for a charity envoy	a messenger or representative, especially one on a diplomatic mission trivium	an introductory curriculum at a medieval university involving the study of grammar, rhetoric, and logic viaduct	a long bridgelike structure, typically a series of arches, carrying a road or railroad across a valley or other low ground