29. Limits of a Superpower, 1969–1980

- 1. Which of the following BEST reflected President Nixon's policy of "Vietnamization"?
 - (A) massive bombing of North Vietnam by American air power
 - (B) full-scale invasion of Cambodia to end the Communist threat
 - (C) gradual withdrawal of American armed forces from Vietnam
 - (D) turning the war in South Vietnam over to United Nations forces
 - (E) stopping all American military and economic aid to South Vietnam
- 2. Richard Nixon's conduct of foreign affairs emphasized all of the following EXCEPT
 - (A) playing off Communist China against Communist Russia
 - (B) reduction of tension between the United States and Communist countries
 - (C) a use of the balance of power diplomacy to achieve stability in the world
 - (D) a renewed arms race in ballistic and antiballistic missiles
 - (E) providing economic and military assistance to other nations, but not large numbers of American troops
- 3. The Paris Accords of 1973 included all of the following EXCEPT
 - (A) the United States would withdraw the rest of its troops from South Vietnam
 - (B) the United States would end all economic and military aid to South Vietnam
 - (C) the United States would get back all prisoners in enemy hands
 - (D) North Vietnam could keep some of its troops in South Vietnam
 - (E) a promise of a cease-fire and free elections
- 4. Under the program of New Federalism, President Nixon sought to

(A) shift the responsibility for social programs from the federal to state and local governments

- (B) end the Great Society assistance programs for the working poor
- (C) attack inflation with a series of voluntary guidelines for business and labor
- (D) slow down desegregation by turning over busing decisions to the state courts
- (E) bring social programs all together under more efficient federal bureaucracy
- 5. Richard Nixon's strategy to build a Republican majority for 1972 included all of the following EXCEPT
 - (A) hard-hitting attacks by Vice President Spiro Agnew on liberals and the media
 - (B) gaining support in the South by slowing down court-ordered busing for desegregation
 - (C) appointment of southern conservatives to the Supreme Court
 - (D) appealing to the "silent majority"
 - (E) establishing positive relationships with the national media and liberal press
- 6. What caused Richard Nixon to resign in 1974?
 - (A) He violated the War Powers Act passed by Congress.
 - (B) He ordered the "Saturday night massacre."
 - (C) The White House tapes proved he was guilty of obstruction of justice.
 - (D) He ordered his staff to keep an "enemies list" and use "dirty tricks."
 - (E) He took bribes while governor of Maryland.
- 7. President Gerald Ford lost the most support from the American public for
 - (A) allowing the fall of South Vietnam to the Communists
 - (B) his ineffective WIN campaign against inflation
 - (C) becoming the first unelected president of the United States
 - (D) the loss of American lives in the Mayaquez affair
 - (E) his pardon of Richard Nixon
- 8. The main guiding principle of President Carter's foreign policy was
 - (A) détente
 - (B) human rights
 - (C) support of Israel
 - (D) lower gas prices
 - (E) containment of communism

- 9. The U.S. economy in the late 1970s was characterized by all of the following EXCEPT
 - (A) low interest rates
 - (B) oil shortages and increased oil prices
 - (C) massive layoffs of workers
 - (D) runaway inflation rates
 - (E) recession

10. The U.S. policy of détente with the Soviet Union ended because of

- (A) the development of the MX missile
- (B) the U.S. recognition of the People's Republic of China
- (C) the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan
- (D) the failure of Congress to ratify SALT II
- (E) boycott of the Olympics in Moscow