

Chapter 1: Colliding Worlds, 1450-1600

I. The Native American Experience

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. The First Americans
- B. The Mayas and the Aztecs
- C. The Indians of the North

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

II. Tradition-Bound Europe

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. European Peasant Society
- B. Hierarchy and Authority
- C. The Power of Religion

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

III. Europeans Create a Global World, 1450–1600

Briefly summarize the significance of this section

- A. The Renaissance Changes Europe, 1300–1500
- B. West African Society and Slavery
- C. Europeans Explore America
- D. The Spanish Conquest

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

IV. The Rise of Protestant England, 1500–1620

Briefly summarize the significance of this section

- A. The Protestant Movement
- B. The Dutch and English Challenge Spain
- C. The Social Causes of English Expansion

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

